CPT116 Scott Amendola Band - Cry

Drummer Scott Amendola is best known for touring the world with The Charlie Hunter Quartet and for recording three albums with Hunter's quartet for Blue Note records. Cry is Amendola's second effort as a leader and his group features guitarist Nels Cline, violinist Jenny Scheinman, bassist Todd Sickafoose and saxophonist Eric Crystal. Of special note is the timely and moving version of Bob Dylan's classic song Masters of War, featuring Geraldine Fibbers vocalist Carla Bozulich. Drawing from stylistic influences such as African music, jazz, blues, spirituals, rock, and the avant garde, Scott's music ranges from hard-hitting grooves to lush ballads. Amendola was nominated for a Grammy with the band T.J. Kirk, and has recorded or performed with Bill Frisell, John Zorn, The Nels Cline Singers, and Jacky Terrasson, among many others.
