CG111 Mark Dresser Trio Aquifer

Mark Dresser - contrabass, giffus
Matthias Ziegler - electro-acoustic flutes
(contrabass, bass, alto, soprano flutes, & piccolo)
Denman Maroney - hyperpiano

New York bassist Mark Dresser has performed and recorded with such new music luminaries as Anthony Braxton, Tim Berne, Dave Douglas, Anthony Davis and John Zorn and was a founding member of the group Arcado. His trio with Matthias Ziegler - electro-acoustic flutes & Denman Maroney - hyperpiano, explores new worlds of instrumental technique, composition and intuitive collaboration. Mark Dresser is a virtuoso bass player and composer whose uncompromising voice and singular style has impressed international audiences since 1972. His unique sound and impressive vocabulary on his instrument is easily recognizable on over eighty recordings.

"Mark Dresser is an inventor. He also may be the most important bassist to emerge since 1980 in jazz or classical music." - Boston Herald

"Mark Dresser awed the assembly with his compositions for solo bass-no one expected to be nailed to the floor by one guy with a four-string." - Los Angeles Times
