Featured on BET Jazz, "Knitting Factory Presents"

Bone Structure features "Interstellar Space" drummer Gregg Bendian, violinist Jeff Gauthier, bassist Steuart Liebig, and ex-Shadowfax guitarist G.E. Stinson. Bone Structure combines detonated percussive devices, hack-sawed string-stretching, x-tech guitar torque, and basso-technoid tool-usage. The mutant children of Miles Davis' electro-funk tribe meets George Crumb's hobo-zombie 12-tone country blues. Ambient old-age sewage treatment sludge, slides down the gaping maw of the godhead groove. Signal-drifting orchestra texture over ultra-maniacal drum and bass. With influences as diverse as John McLaughlin's Mahvishnu Orchestra, King Crimson, Weather Report, Muddy Waters, Miles Davis, Ornette Coleman, and Karlheinz Stockhausen, Bone Structure brings creative improvisation into a new era.
